

Anne Catanese

Anne has worked in the community sector for over 5 years, and prior to that, in the adult multicultural education sector where she held a variety of roles including senior management.

She holds a Bachelor of Arts, Diploma of Education, Post Graduate Diploma of TESOL, and Advanced Diploma in Business Management. During her time in the community sector, Anne managed the community services programs at Springvale Community Aid & Advice Bureau. These included emergency relief, information & referral, volunteering, and settlement services. Now as Manager of Chelsea Community Support Services, Anne leads her team in the delivery of generalist support services to vulnerable & disadvantaged people. She has extensive experience, knowledge & passion in working with CALD communities, and has participated in a range of external committees & advisory groups including Board member of South East Migrant Resource Centre, and Chair of Adult Community & Further Education Council.