

Bill Morton

Bill is a qualified accountant with a Bachelor of Business (Accounting) who has worked in a range of senior finance and corporate roles with the Victorian Government. Most of these roles have been in the mental health, community services, adult and youth corrections and the State Treasury.

He has also worked in the public hospitals sector on some of the major hospital redevelopments that took place in Victoria after 2000. These included the Austin Health Redevelopment, as well as new hospitals in rural Victoria including work Warracknabeal and Hopetoun Hospitals.

Bill currently does consulting work for agencies in the NFP.

Out of hours Bill plays veterans hockey with the Footscray Hockey Club and is rhythm guitarist and keyboardist in a rock/blues band, the "New Crisis".